Many a time, the old Records are not at all looked into they exist to no purpose. But yet they Exist for all purposes for that they are really meant to be. Then they are by their good luck are retained in a fanciful way

Very Plate Stories for thousand fold deeds, which their brother or sister records stood. & are at no more use in the archives of a Country's Record Room as unnecessary, making Room for the incoming fresh Records. and thus destroyed. Whereas remaining old Records may by best advantage be studied & used for daily routine as current
